

The SANGUINIST

A RELIGIOUS WEEKLY

Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

CALLING ALL CARS, PAGING ALL STUDENTS

Like the plight of a busy pastor on a wearisome Saturday night automatically repeating the schedule of Sunday Masses with each recurring ring of the phone, we again answer: "Yes, confessions are heard every Thursday and Saturday night immediately after Benediction, 6:30 P.M." For those who find it so exhausting to wait for the few minutes of this beautiful divine service, we mention that Confessions are heard daily during the 6:45 A.M. student Mass. If you have not been to the Sacraments for several months, choose the evening period. You can well afford the time spent in preparing for a worthy Confession. Incidentally, cultivate the habit of saying your penance before leaving the Church.

DREXEL HALL KEEPS TRADITION

Authentic reports reveal that Drexelites are preserving the noble tradition of frequent attendance at Mass. Both the seniors and the juniors have assigned days for weekly attendance. The cooperation has not been 100% but it is encouraging. We hope the "back-sliders" will emulate the example of their fellow classmates. What about the sophomores and freshmen? We are aware that the President of the sophomore class is doing his best to promote the idea of class attendance at Mass. A few manly souls are cooperating with him. It is suggested that the presidents of the various classes report all plans and activities along this line to the Reverend Editor of the Sanguinist.

THE REAL FIFTH COLUMN -- FROM THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSE BULLETIN

In the Catholic Universe Bulletin, Diocese of Cleveland, we observe a few pertinent passages from the timely editorial of Dr. Fitzpatrick: "The startling collapse of the French military machine astounded the world. Excuses were sought for the debacle while the German army was still on the march...

"The real fifth column in France had its genesis in the new spirit of the French people. They were the actual promoters of the movement that ended in their doom....

"Not merely for years, but for decades France has walked along the primrose path of dalliance. It chose the soft line of selfishness that the immoral proponents of birth control are striving to set up as the standard of our times.

"Paris was the gayest city in the universe. Frenchmen gloried in the publicity their merry capital gained in the world and shut their ears to the warnings of their spiritual leaders that their defiance of God's laws was robbing them of the manpower necessary to defend their country and their capital."

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday is Holy Name Sunday. Pledge to be recited after the sermon.

Remember the Catholic Hour, 5:00 P.M., C.S.T.

November is dedicated to the Poor Souls.

PRAYERS REQUESTED

Special intention, J.G. (Columbus, Ohio); J.A.R. (Cleveland, Ohio); for the recovery of George Bitler, freshman, 1939-40 (Fort Wayne, Indiana);
for the recovery of Donald Schrenk, freshman.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

SUN.3. Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost. The Mass today is taken from the Mass assigned to the fourth Sunday after the Epiphany. In the Gospel of this Sunday we find a solution to all our cares and problems -- simple and childlike Faith in Christ.

MON.4. The Feast of St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop and Confessor. Born of a noble family in 1528, St. Charles Early manifested those great qualities of soul and mind that were to earn for him lasting recognition. Closely associated with the era of Counter-Reformation, he is looked upon as the Father of the modern seminary. Amid the chaos and treachery of his own age, he stands witness to that inner, divine power of the Church to reform itself.

TUES.5. Tuesday within the Octave of All Saints. The Mass from the Feast of all Saints is offered. As the word octave implies, this feast is observed for eight continuous days.

WED.6. Wednesday within the Octave of all Saints.

THURS.7. Thursday within the Octave of All Saints. Confessions immediately after Benediction.

FRI.8. Feast of the Octave of All Saints. Cultivate the habit of Friday Communion. Confessions are heard daily during the Mass at 6:45.

SAT.9. Feast of the Consecration of the Cathedral of St. John Lateran under the title, Archbasilica of Our Savior. Contrary to popular belief, St. John Lateran, and not St. Peter's, is the Pope's Cathedral.
